- Two faculty member are Ph.D. and one faculty member is pursuing Ph.D.
- All the faculty members have presented research papers in National/ International seminars
- We are free to carry out academicactivities
- 'Sanskrit Bharati' supports us in imparting Spoken Sanskrit lessons to students.

2. Weakness:

- Economical backward students are not regular in the classroom.
- Computer literacy and English language skills need improvement among teachers

3. Opportunities:

- To start more value added courses.
- To translate Sanskrit into other languages.
- To learn Manuscriptology
- To impart coaching for competitive exam.

3. Challenges:

- Many of the students are not serious about studies. So teaching uninterested students becomes a great challenge.
- Sanskrit is not used in daily conversation so most of parents and student are no interested to learn Sanskrit.
- Placement of students.
